

INCIDENT COMMAND

ICS SECTION LEVEL TRAINING

This course is aimed at advancing Emergency Management Team understanding of detailed principals of ICS. Each Section Module is focused on the specific organization, interaction, responsibilities, and documentation flow through hands-on experience with the decision making process. Students learn effective use of job aides, reference tools, and critical paths in performance of their duties.

Required by: Meets OPA 90, OSHA 1910.120, and CalOSHA §5192
Target Audience: Recommended for Personnel in each of the ICS Sections
Duration: Each Module is 8 hours—Refresher can be focused 4 hour session

INCIDENT COMMANDER & COMMAND STAFF

- Understanding Spill Risks for Your Facility
- Effective use of your Response Network
- Tailoring of Spill Management Team Organization
- Incident Commander Duties and Functions
- Command Staff Duties
- Management of the Command Staff Effectively
- Meeting and Planning Cycle Management
- Effective Use of Trajectory Models

PLANNING SECTION

- Spill Risks for Your Facility
- ICS Basics and General Organization
- Planning Section and Units Duties and Function
- Effective Techniques for Site Prioritization
- Shoreline Cleanup Team Management (SCAT)
- Wildlife Rescue and Rehab Coordination
- Response Permitting and Waste Management
- Spill Management Documentation
- Information Flow and Responsibilities"
- Resource Tracking Methodology
- Response Management & Planning Cycle
- Effective Use of Spill Trajectory Models

OPERATIONS SECTION

- Understanding Spill Risks for Your Facility
- Operations Section and Units Duties and Function
- Management of your Response Network
- Directing Cleanup Operations
- Operations Management of Resources
- Wildlife Operations Management
- Shoreline Cleanup Team Management (SCAT)
- Coordination within the ICS Organization

LOGISTICS SECTION

- Spill Risks for Your Facility
- Understanding Response Contractor Network
- ICS Basics and General Organization
- Logistics Section and Units Duties and Function
- Resource Job Aids and Sources
- Understanding Resource Tracking and Ordering
- Effective Coordination with Finance Section
- Response Management & Planning Cycle

Other "Focused ICS Training for Public Information, Safety Officer, & Finance Section